ACADEMIC STANDING – Undergraduate Day Programs

Students are expected to work continuously toward their academic degrees. To maintain Good Academic Standing students must fulfill two requirements:

1) a minimum cumulative GPA based on the following table, and

2) a minimum completion of 66% of the credits attempted in any given semester.

At the end of each semester the Registrar identifies students who do not meet the criteria for Good Academic Standing. The Academic Department Heads, the Office of the Provost, and the Registrar review this list.

Good Academic Standing is not the same as Satisfactory Academic Progress for financial aid. Refer to the catalog for determining financial aid eligibility.
