Students may declare a minor in a field of study outside of their major (applied mathematics majors cannot also minor in applied mathematics, for example). Students may declare more than one minor. Students may also change minors and drop a minor.

Note that if a minor has options for concentrations, this information must be included when listing the minor to add or change.

W __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __

ID Number

Last Name

First Name

Middle Name

________________________________________

Phone number

Email address

Are you an international student studying on a F-1 visa? Yes ☐ (international advisor must sign below) No ☐

International advisor signature: ________________________________________________________________

I am:

☐ Declaring a new minor: Manufacturing

List the courses you have taken or will take to complete the minor (4 or 5 courses, depending on the minor):

1. MANF1000 Manufacturing Processes

2. MANF2000 Computer Aided Manufacturing

3. MANF3000 Manufacturing Engineering

4. PSYC4552 Industrial and Organizational Psychology

5. ECONXXX Any 4-credit Economics course

☐ Adding an additional minor: ________________________________________________________________

☐ Changing minors from _____________________________________________________________ to ____________________________

☐ Undeclaring the following minor(s): __________________________________________________________

________________________________________

Department Chair Signature (Required)

Date

________________________________________

Student Signature (Required)

Date